

Marc Agar, President & CEO of CA Communications, Speaks at Technology Assurance Group's Regional Meeting

Midwest's Elite Business Communications Providers Discuss Issues Impacting Their Industry

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – June 28, 2007 - CA Communications, Inc., the region's leader in business communications, announced today that the company's President & CEO, Marc Agar, spoke at Technology Assurance Group's Midwest Regional Meeting recently held in Chicago.

Technology Assurance Group (TAG) is an organization of independently owned business communications companies representing over $385 million in products and services in both the United States and Canada. Mr. Agar shared his expertise and valuable insight on a number of issues impacting the Midwest's elite providers and their customers.

Mr. Agar discussed such topics as the impact of the latest technology like VoIP, how to enhance employee performance through mentoring, how to exceed customer expectations by increasing their profitability and giving them a competitive advantage, and utilizing marketing to effectively communicate to the target audience. Mr. Agar is an expert in each one of these subject areas and was able to share specific examples from his own business experiences.

"Mr. Agar was a natural fit to participate in this valuable meeting. His reputation far exceeds those of his competitors and this is directly attributable to the better business practices he has implemented over the years," commented Dale Johnson, CEO of TAG. "Marc is dedicated to exceeding customer expectations and has built a team of knowledgeable professionals committed to this philosophy."

"It was a privilege to share our experiences with our colleagues," stated
